Sheri:
Don't worry about Randy
he really got it for you.
There are a lot of things to Remember that night we climbed through the window at Ann's house. The almost fight in front of your house with Mike, and the time you set me up with Kim, then told me
Sue Sanger where we were going.
Thanks
Good luck
Jack

well - Good-Luck at Moreau!
Love ya
Bob.

Sherri,
As the year comes to a close we can reflect on many things. Communications for one thing was fantastic. I'm glad you were in my class. I felt that our friendship grew this year, even though we've known each other for three years. I really enjoy talking to you because you're super. Your red face, warm smile, and lovable character has brought sunshine to my life more than once. I really will miss you if you move to Utah. I hope you don't have to. Have a fun summer and stay beautiful. I wish you and Randy all the happiness in the world. Take care.

Love always,
Matt

P.S. I hope you can graduate here and that we have some classes together in the fall. Until then, much love and happiness.
BYE

Sherri,
I want to thank you again for letting me have cuts at the dinner line during the Festival, it really saved me alot of time. I think this is the first year you didn't get into a fight with me, it wasn't as fun was it? Well we have one more year together, so stay your nice little Red-faced way, and have a good summer, and good luck with the kid (Reds),

Love,
Terry E.

Sherri,
I am glad we got to know each other this year. It seems we had just been talking about our summer! I hope so much that you do just remember it as great talking to you. I helped you as Sherri Kreutzer & miss you! But I don't miss you as much as Sherri Kreutzer (parody of Karen Kreutzer) has been really great talking to you. But I'm glad we got to know each other this year. It seems we had just been talking about our summer! I hope so much that you do just remember it as great talking to you. I helped you as Sherri Kreutzer (parody of Karen Kreutzer) & miss you! But I don't miss you as much as someone or the other else does! But besides me & you could care less about someone else's problems again! Any way, Sherri, I love your letter (parody of your letter) and keep in touch. I'm willing to help you as much as you could be me cause I'm willing to help you as much as you could be me cause I'm sure you'll get a call or letter one day you'll be mrs. Willett! And there's a body for you! Good luck always remember that I love you! And there's a body for you! Good luck always remember that I love you! And there's a body for you! Sherri Sorry about the book in your boot-opps did I say that! It's been a good year – it went so fast – have a great summer – & senior year – it'll be lonely without the seniors – Happiness!
Kelli

Sherri,

I am so glad we are friends. How awful, we weren't friends before. But I guess that's because I didn't have any classes with. But we lucked out this year. Not only did we have a class together, but we had two. It was so much fun in Typing. Talking and goofing off. And don't forget the time we cut Typing and had lunch together. I really enjoyed that, cuz I got to know you better.

I hope you and Randy are happy for the rest of your lives, or at least as long as the two of you decide to stay each other.

Next year I hope our friendship grows and grows.

Have a great summer and Be happy always. Hey, I'm waiting to have a real knock out fight with you O.K??

Take care,
I love ya,

Sherri—
To one of my best your last yr. at Moreau is great.

Happiness to you always.

ACTIVITIES

I've never been able to make it as a group.
I have a hard time making my mind and when I get all together
I seem to go all to pieces.
I'd like to gather myself together and talk about it but I keep walking out in single file.
Maybe I'm just doomed to split up and go my way.

Drama 1974

The Moreau 1975 Drama Department, under the direction of the Drama Instructor, Mr. John Barreiro, put on one of Moreau's finest comedies on November 21, 22, and 24 in the Moreau High Auditorium. The play 'Don't Drink the Water" dealt with an American family on vacation in a communist country. The family is accused of spying and runs to the embasy for sanctuary. The embassy is being temporarily run by the ambassador's incompetent son. The family is finally able to escape and the play ends on a note of storybook as the American family's only daughter and the ambassador's son fall in love. The all-star cast included such greats as Mark Folger, Bob Steves, Mary Silva, Pat O'Brien, Sheila Conemac, Sandra Hickson, Howard Settle, Matt Gallagher, Jill Ornelles, Eugene Jones, Dan Bell, and Steve Volpe. Student directors were Jim Ruby and Dana King. The technical director was a 1974 graduate of Moreau, Derek Duarte.

SENIOR RETREAT

Some experiences have such a deep meaning for the people involved that they can't be described by any conventional means. The Senior Retreat was such an experience. Everyone who went on a senior retreat got something different out of it. But at the retreat, everyone lost the facade that they have at school. People began to be open and honest about themselves because others became willing to reach out to each other and really listen. You may have thought that you knew that person really well but you find out that you didn't know that person at all. The same is true of yourself. You might have thought of yourself as being all together; knew where you had been and where you were going. But as it turns out, you don't even know yourself. Elaborate words and fancy phrases can't begin to describe the feeling you leave with when reentering the bus for the trip home. No one really knew exactly what it was, but whatever it was, it was great.

Unfinished business surrounds me;
Unanswered letters on the shelf
Dangling poetry around me
Still telling tales about myself.

Walking all alone, sorting out the things I've seen.
Reading messages from faces.
It might be fun to live on the far side of the moon.
Raise a crop of stars with a twinkle in every bloom.
Strolling in the light of galaxies.
All contained within my room.

The clock steals time away in seconds.
My book grows old with every line.
The ivy sings to me it beckons.
Dividing lines are, oh, so fine. White ideals turn grey.
Promises of love are scoffed away.
Happy hour is just what it says it is.
Give me age without giving tepid decadence.
Don't push me in compromise, that ain't common sense.
Keep surpising me it keeps me young.
Lovers all we vault the high fence.

The cardboard mountains, folding valleys,
The pencil trees and milky skies.
Why can't the stars be underneath the clouds?
Why does it have to always be that way?
I would like to change things. I think I'll be an older me.

I've seen the leaves change in autumn.
I've seen myself change and grow.
I know now what it is worth having;
I know you're all I need to know.
All I dare to stake my life on;
All that is that will not bow.

Unfinished business surrounds me;
Unanswered letters on the shelf.
Dangling poetry around me
Still telling tales about itself.

editor's notes . . .

This page is for the people who made this fine yearbook possible.

To MARK FRESCHI—Thank you for help with the theme, color section, Frosh, Sophomore, faculty, clubs, and sports sections. You were one of the most important and helpful members of the staff.

To PAM BROTHERS—Thanks for all your hours spent on this yearbook. Without a doubt you are the most qualified person on the staff. Your work on the class sections, clubs, faculty, sports, ads, business, and activities was very much appreciated.

To GORETTE LUCAS—Without you, our senior baby picture section would be still on the drawing board. Thanks also for getting the activities section in order, cropping (and recropping) sports pictures, and staying here to the late hours just to help us make a deadline, and for your general moral support.

CINDY BOEGEL—your work on the senior and theme sections, and your willingness to spend long hours helping wherever needed is greatly appreciated.

To BRIAN TRUJILLO (did I spell it right?)—our sports editor. Thanks a lot for a superlative job on the sports pages and your help with the Frosh section. Without your organization the entire sports section would not have been possible.

To LYNN LOMBARD—your help with drawing layouts, cropping pictures, typing copy, cleaning up, and always saying the right things at the right time was greatly appreciated. By the way; no, we do not hate you!

To another very valuable staff member, KATHI MORESI—Thank you so much for your work on the whole yearbook. You worked on almost every section. Especially, thanks for the excellent work you did almost alone on the academics section.

VALERIE CARATTINI—your smiling face and comic remarks kept us all awake during the late hours after school and on holidays. Thanks for your help with drawing layouts.

To LINDA LOZANO—Your beautiful cover is a great display of your talent. Without your organization of the Junior section I don't know what we would have done. Signed, your illustrious leader.

To ANDREA ANDERSON—Thanks for all your work on the Freshmen section and drawing layouts for us.

To LISA CRUDO—Thank you for your work on the theme, color section, ladder, checking layouts, and overall help.

To ANGIE BACKERS, JAN PEREZ, and STEPHANIE SANDOVAL—for work on the Junior section and help with the theme.

To MARTHA LARA, ROSALINDA CANLAS, and LYN HOGAN—for their very diligent work on the activities section during their lunch period.

To TONY HERRERA—Thank you for selling ads and yearbooks, taking care of business, and getting your ads in on the deadlines.

To the rest of the business staff; CRAIG HARTER, DARYL UCHIKURA, BOB SULLIVAN, CINDY McCREA, LISA BILAN, and MARY DEAN—for selling ads and yearbooks so industriously throughout the year.

To our yearbook photographers: GARY BETZ, JEFF TACKETT, KEN YOUNGER, PAT MULLIN, and their supervisor, MR. R. J. McENTEE for working so arduously before deadlines.

GENE LAUGHERY—for the "Step into '75" on page 115.

Thanks to MR. RICH ESPICHA—for opening our file cabinet whenever anyone locked it. I left out the phone story.

To MR. PIMENTEL—for the use of your senior retreat pictures.

To MR. TOM SQUIERS—for letting us use your phone when we needed it.

Special thanks to JIM SECHELSKI, a friend of mine from Pleasant Hill—for your great song lyrics. They contributed well to our theme.

To MRS. FARRELL and MRS. SOUSA at Capwells—thanks for putting up with all my phone calls and people with no pictures. You really helped to solve many problems (e.g. the senior class picture). We also really enjoyed the candy.

To our company representative, MR. DON FREEMAN—without your help at deadline time and when I needed to call you, we would not have a yearbook right now.

To the office ladies, MRS. PULSKAMP, MRS. PERKEY, MRS. ISAACSON, and MRS. MORRISSON for all their assistance during the year: use of telephones, class rosters, notes run to students, after school paging and numerous other ways they helped us.

To KATHY HARRIS—thank you for helping us whenever we needed it. By the way, you did it!

To BRO. LAWRENCE YOUNG—thanks for your help in solving problems encountered in the course of this year (e.g. the senior picture).

And finally, to BRO. CHARLES McNEILL—thanks for all your assistance during the year.

Thanks also to anyone else who helped, too numerous to mention.

Charles Joseph George Kennedy, class of 1975
—Editor

P.S. I just can't say how much you mean to me, you have to feel it, and I'll have to try and show it a little more like you.

moreau days

On April 9, 10, and 11, the executive council sponsored "Moreau Days," an attempt to revive the former Spirit Week held in past years. For three days, classes were dismissed 40 minutes early, and each of the 4 classes was given about 20 minutes for a presentation displaying class spirit. Judges were chosen from Moreau and other schools in the area. They judged on creativity, imagination, and quality of each class' skit. The Freshman Class skit was titled "Freshman Chamber of Horrors." The Sophomores' theme was "There's no Business Like Show Business." The Juniors held "Disney Days," and the Seniors' theme was "Bon Voyage." Each class also decorated their designated hall according to the theme chosen. On the last day, classes were dismissed at 12:00 to go to the football field and listen to the rock and roll group which was hired by the ASB. The winners of Moreau Days were announced that afternoon. The Senior class placed first, the Sophomores took second, and the Juniors and Freshmen tied for third place.

West Side Story

Moreau's most successful musical production was West Side Story, performed April 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th, in the Moreau Auditorium. The play was under the direction of Mr. John Barreiro, with Danita Fraga and Bill Shindler as assistant directors. West Side Story is the timeless story of two people falling in love, who are not conscious of any social status, of war between two street gangs in New York City during the 1950's. The result of Maria and Tony's love is the death of, first, Maria's brother Bernardo, and then, of her boyfriend Tony. Choreography was by Mrs. JoNeal Boic and Danita Fraga. Sister Ann Margarite was musical director, and the instrumental was done by Celeste Repasky and Nancy Berdrow. The cast starred Kevin Quigley, Betty Barrett, Mark Folger, Nancy Bevilacqua, and Armando Cordoba. Other members of the cast were Matt Gallagher, Pat O'Brian, David Eggers, Bob Cook, Clare Stich, Roxanne Soares, Rilia Callaghan, Cheryl Baglietto, and Patty Gruidl. Teachers who starred in the production were John Barreiro, Vern Davidson, John Higgins, and Petar Zegura. Many thanks go to all the others, too numerous to name, without whom West Side Story would not have been the biggest money maker in the history of Moreau High School.

Like Columbus
in the olden days
we must gather
all our courage

Sail our ships out
on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years
will come and go

and take us up—
always up.

They're all
that's left you.

Sherri,

Believe it or not
there's not a whole lot
I can write in your Annual yearbook since I've already have maybe a few things I wanted to say. #1 I can't start off by saying that whatever happens this summer with you morning, I can only say that I will still be willing to go ahead with our plans of staying together
#2 I hope your senior year is enjoyed to the fullest, because after you get out maybe you could feel like I did. You might feel that you didn't give it everything you had, which to me is a horrible feeling Too much for me to ever try and repay. So you can start to repay
Moreau gave too much for me this final + best year, next year
(if you want) by letting me help you through the rest of school shit. let's talk absences well enough for the summer. you fuck an awful lot what exactly are we going to be able to do this summer. you fuck an awful lot about going skiing and stuff. I don't know if that means me too? I am really interested in finding out just what we will be allowed to do this summer. (you're probably wondering the same thing). I want to go to the beach ALOT!

Sherri I can go on and on writing things like above. I want to leave this remaining part engraved in your heart; as I'm writing it from my heart ♡. To the girl in my life, (oh god this already
I can't put in writing what your presence has done for me these last 2 sounds bad).
years. What you have done is made me realize what love actually is.
You mean so goddam much to me, I couldn't begin to put it in words. (so I won't)
But believe it or not, I'm sure that you will someday be, the girl in my life for ever. . .
with all the love in my heart ♡

Sherri,

We haven't talk as much this year but I think we're still pretty good friends. The two of us have been through some good and bad times - I guess we've both survived. We've done some crazy things but they were great. I'm sure we'll see each other over the summer. Good Luck and Enjoy your senior year - it'll go by fast.

Love,
